TATING LAS VICAS ON SHORE ON SHORE

Culinary Reve SEC SEC and

The Grape Escape

By Terry Sullivan

...Finish with a run up the road to Bennett Lane Winerv, where Randv and Lisa Lvnch run what mav be the only winery/NASCAR combo operation in captivity. You can hurt yourself here-some of their Cabs sell for the price of a fuelinjection system—but the tastingroom charge is a gentle $10, and the bargains are in the Maximus series. The White Feasting Wine ($28) is Sauvignon Blanc with 11 percent Chardonnay and a splash of Muscat-think lime rind and grapefruit with a few flowers. The Maximus Red version ($35) is a dry, bright blend of Cab, Merlot and 20 percent Syrah. Call it the guns of Naparhone. Spend $175 a head and they'll pick you up in a limo, let you blend and bottle your own cuvee and feed you wine paired with cheese and other goodies...

PLUS

THE REAL TAR WARS

CUTTING CUTTING LEDGE

STOPPING EREAST CANCER EEFORE TSTARTS

SERVING CHICAGO'S FINE

